The Lighter Side !

An elderly woman and her little grandson, whose face was sprinkled with bright freckles, spent the day at the zoo. Lots of children were waiting in line to get their cheeks painted by a local artist who was decorating them with tiger paws. "You've got so many freckles, there's no place to paint!" a girl in the line said to the little fella. Embarrassed, the little boy dropped his head. His grandmother knelt down next to him. "I love your freckles. When I was a little girl I always wanted freckles, she said, while tracing her finger across the child's cheek. "Freckles are beautiful!" The boy looked up, "Really?" "Of course," said the grandmother. "Why, just name me one thing that's prettier than freckles." The little boy thought for a moment, peered intensely into his grandma's face, and softly whispered, "Wrinkles."

Polish Interpretation of this week's Gospel

Czasami możemy być dla siebie samych bardzo okrutni, bo "zawiedliśmy", bo nie jesteśmy tacy, jacy chcielibyśmy być. Ale Bóg jest „nieskory do gniewu”. Patrzy na nas z miłością i zawsze posyła Swojego Ducha, aby pomóc nam przezwyciężyć nasze słabości i uzależnienia.

Często uważamy, że z powodu tych słabości nie możemy być dobrymi ludźmi ani robić niczego pięknego.

Mylimy się. Jezus mówi nam dzisiaj, że jesteśmy dobrym ziarnem, które On zasiał. Nasze słabości lub uzależnienia są tylko jak chwast, który rośnie i wpływa na nasze możliwości, ale walka z nimi nie powinna być naszym głównym celem życia. Powinniśmy wzrastać w miłości, wypełniać naszą misję i zaakceptować to, że niektóre nasze słabości mogą pozostać z nami do końca.

Sometimes we can be very cruel to ourselves because we have "failed" because we are not what we would like to be. But God is "slow to anger". He looks at us with love and always sends His Spirit to help us overcome our weaknesses and addictions.

We often think that because of these weaknesses, we can't be good people or do anything beautiful. We are wrong. Jesus tells us today that we are the good seed He has sown. Our weaknesses or addictions are just like a weed that grows and affects our capabilities, but fighting them should not be our main goal of life. We should grow in love, fulfil our mission, and accept that some of our weaknesses may remain with us to the end.
