Polish Interpretation of this week's Gospel

In today's readings, God invites us to look at our families and communities. For we cannot forget that we are called together as part of the one body of Christ. And in the Holy Spirit, we should be responsible for one another so that this Spirit completes us in His love. Jesus not only brings us salvation, but also through our hearts He brings mercy and joy to our families and communities.

W dzisiejszych czytaniach Pan Bóg zaprasza nas abyśmy przyjrżeli się naszym rodzinom i wspólnotom. Bo nie możemy zapomnieć, że zostaliśmy powołani razem jako część jednego ciała Chrystusa. I w Duchu Świętym powinniśmy być odpowiedzialni za siebie nawzajem by ten Duch dopełniał nas w swojej miłości. Jezus nie tylko nam przynosi zbawienie, ale także poprzez nasze serca przynosi miłosierdzie i radość naszym rodzinom i wspólnotom.

Lord, I don't know what your plans are for me, but I ask you, to please, be gentle with me, for this child of yours is both fearful and anxious. Amen

On behalf of our local parish community, I would like to take the time to extend our profound appreciation and thanks to those among who provided for the decoration of our worship space; those who served as ushers for the various Masses; the music ministers; the Lectors and the Eucharistic Ministers and your good selves who gathered with us for prayer during Advent and in the lead up to Christmas liturgies in what continues to be a very trying time for so many in our society. Please God, 2021 will augur well for a therapeutic and healing response to the Covid-19 pandemic.

The Lighter Side !

A man suffered a serious heart attack and had open heart bypass surgery. He awakened from the surgery to find himself in the care of nuns at a Catholic hospital. As he was recovering, a nun asked him questions regarding how he was going to pay for services. He was asked if he had health insurance. He replied, in a raspy voice, 'No health insurance.' The nun asked if he had money in the bank. He replied, 'No money in the bank.' The nun asked, 'Do you have a relative who could help you?' He said, 'I only have a spinster sister, who is a nun.' The nun got a little perturbed and announced loudly. 'Nuns are not spinsters! Nuns are married to God,' The patient replies, 'Oh that's right! You can send the bill to my brother-in-law.'
