

Our heartiest congratulations to the boys and girls of our Sacred Heart School who received their First Holy Communion over the course of last weekend. With our prayer and our support, we affirm them in this most recent and significant step they have taken along their onward faith journey. Notwithstanding the ongoing Covid-19-related restrictions, the liturgies were prayerful, peaceful and most appropriate. We thank last year's Second class teachers who worked very hard to make it a meaningful and special day for the children.

From the Archdiocese: The Annual Collection for Crosscare, the social support agency of the Archdiocese of Dublin will occur at all Masses in the Diocese on the Weekend of 18 and 19 September inst. It will replace the usual SHARE Collection. Through their services for Homeless, Youth, Migrants and Refugees, Crosscare focuses on helping people and families when they need it most or when they can't find support anywhere else. In their Community Foodbanks and Cafes, Crosscare provides food parcels and nutritious meals everyday. Demand for its services continues to increase as the Covid-19 pandemic has impacted the most vulnerable in our parishes and communities.

This parish community has had a laudable track record of kindness and generosity down through the years for a wide variety of worthy causes, and no less with Crosscare. This year, again, it will do its best! Thank you so much.

Corkagh Park—Food and Craft Market

South Dublin County Council are trialling a new food & craft market which started last Saturday 4th September and runs for 8 more weeks in Corkagh Park, Clondalkin, Dublin 22.

Markets and traders will be tailored for the community as well as the space, everything that will go into Corkagh is going in for a reason. There will be approximately 35 stalls. Crafts will be handmade or hand finished. All food vendors need all the relevant certs and insurance. Traders need to have their own equipment too, gazebos/tables etc. Located near to the children's play ground area.

The Lighter Side!

One Wednesday morning, Martin demanded of his boss, "I must have a pay rise. Do you realise there are three other companies after me". "Really?" replied the boss. "And who might these companies be?" The ESB, Eircom and the Credit Union!!!

Polish Reflection on this week's Gospel

Man understands the concept of success and happiness differently from God. For us, it usually equates to wealth, health, a peaceful and stable life for us and our loved ones. From the point of view of God and eternal life, our suffering and everyday difficulties also make sense and cannot stop us from being happy. We need faith that will not only be empty words, but an action that will change the reality that surrounds us. Then our perception of the world will change and we will look at others and at ourselves through the eyes of Jesus. And even seemingly difficult situations in our lives will take on a deeper meaning and it will be easier for us to deal with them.

Człowiek rozumie pojęcie sukcesu i szczęścia inaczej niż Pan Bóg. Dla nas jest to zazwyczaj równoznaczne z dobrobytem, zdrowiem, spokojnym i stabilnym życiem, naszym i naszych bliskich. Z punktu widzenia Pana Boga i w perspektywie życia wiecznego natomiast, także nasze cierpienie i codzienne trudności mają sens i nie mogą nas powstrzymać od bycia szczęśliwymi. Potrzebujemy wiary, która nie będzie tylko pustymi słowami, ale działaniem, które będzie zmieniać otaczającą nas rzeczywistość. Wtedy nasze postrzeganie świata odmieni się i będziemy patrzyć na innych i na siebie oczami Jezusa. I nawet z pozoru trudne sytuacje w naszym życiu nabiorą głębszego znaczenia i będzie nam łatwiej sobie z nimi poradzić.
