The Lighter Side!

(The Logic of Marriage - A Child's View)

Jack, a very young lad aged 4 years, says to his father, 'Daddy, Daddy, I want to get married.' His father explains, 'For that Jack, you have to have a boy and a girl.' So Jack answers, 'I've already found a girl.' "Who?" splutters his Dad. "Grandma," continues Jack happily. "Now, let me get this straight," his father says. 'You want to marry my mother? You can't do that.' 'I don't see why not?' Jack responds, 'You married mine!'

Polish Reflection on this week's Gospel

Often the Word of God challenges us. It could be a matter of language that is sometimes difficult to understand, or just cultural differences. It may also be, because the world we live in usually teaches us to live in a way that is contrary to God's word. Jesus, when asked about Moses who allowed the people to divorce, says that Moses did it because "you were so unteachable." When God's Word becomes a trial for our life, mind or heart, let us ask Jesus for His Spirit to teach us and give us the grace of understanding.

Często Słowo Boże jest dla nas wyzwaniem. Może to być kwestia języka, który czasami jest trudny do zrozumienia lub po prostu różnice kulturowe. Może tak być także dlatego, że świat, w którym żyjemy, zazwyczaj uczy nas żyć w sposób, który bywa w sprzeczności ze słowem Bożym. Jezus zapytany o Mojżesza, który pozwolił ludowi na rozwody, mówi, że Mojżesz zrobił to, ze względu na „zatwardziałość waszych serc”. Kiedy słowo Boże staje się próbą dla naszego życia, umysłu czy serca, poprośmy Pana Jezusa o Jego Ducha, aby mógł nas nauczyć i dać nam łaskę zrozumienia.
