Mission Sunday October 24th

The World Mission Sunday collection is sent to Pope Francis' Universal Solidarity Fund which supports missionary activity particularly in those parts of the world ravaged by famine and hunger, poverty and food insecurity, conflict and strife, touching the hearts of so many vulnerable people with God's love for them. Thank you for your prayers and other forms of help with this vital mission throughout our global faith community.

In every diocese throughout the world, a Synodal process is being launched today. The opening liturgy for the Archdiocese of Dublin place in the Pro-Cathedral today at 3pm with Archbishop Farrell presiding. Our parish representative is the Chairperson of our Parish Pastoral Council, Hugh O'Neill. The contributions of the synod process here in Dublin will be part of a global synod, a 'synod of synods' in Rome in 2023. The date of the Irish national synod has yet to be announced. More details will be made available as we receive them.

We are all on mission together!

In the upcoming weeks, the brothers of the Ireland-England Province of our religious congregation, the Congregation of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and Mary will host two brothers of our General council in Rome, Jean Blaise Mwanda and Fernando Cordero who hail from the provinces of Africa and Spain, respectively.

We welcome them among us, and ask God to bless them in their ministry of animation and support throughout the SS.CC world.

Our thoughts and prayers go out to the family and friends of the late Thomas "Brock" Brady, who died recently. May his soul and the souls of all our departed loved ones rest in peace.

The Lighter Side !

A man went to his Solicitor and told him, "My neighbour owes me €500 and he won't pay up. What should I do?" "Do you have any proof he owes you the money?" asked the Solicitor. "Nope," replied the man. "OK, then write him a letter asking him for the €5,000 he owed you," said the Solicitor. "But it's only €500," replied the man. "Precisely. That's what he will say in his letter and then you'll have the proof you need!"

Polish Reflection on this week's Gospel

Today's readings remind us that we do not have to carry the heavy backpack of our sins and regrets alone. Jesus came into this world to serve and to pay off our debt on the cross, so that we would live in freedom, without this burden in our hearts. "Anyone who wants to be first among you must be a slave to all." These words may shock many people, but we should not forget that the logic of God's kingdom is different to what we know from earthly experience, and as Christians we should live according to the principles that Jesus taught us. Let us open our hearts and let Him in.

Dzisiejsze czytania przypominają nam, że nie musimy sami dźwigać ciężkiego bagażu naszych grzechów i cierpienia. Jezus przyszedł na ten świat aby służyć i spłacić nasz dług na krzyżu, abyśmy żyli w wolności, bez tego dodatkowego balastu. „Każdy, kto chce być wśród was pierwszy, wpierw musi być niewolnikiem wszystkich.” Słowa te mogą dla wielu być szokujące, ale nie powinniśmy zapominać, że logika Królestwa Bożego jest inna niż to, co znamy z ziemskiego doświadczenia i jako chrześcijanie powinniśmy żyć według zasad, których nauczał Jezus. Otwórzmy nasze serca i wpuśćmy Go do środka.
