Polish Reflection on this week's Gospel

As Christians, we should often ask which king are we serving? Maybe ourselves? We grow on our own to finally become masters of our life and destiny, as this world wants. Or maybe Jesus? He is the King of the Universe, and His mercy and power are eternal and unlimited. The choice seems obvious, but we should reaffirm it every day. The kingdom of Christ does not come from this world and it is we who confirm His kingship over the Universe with our choices and declarations.

Jako chrześcijanie powinniśmy często pytać, któremu królowi służymy? Może samemu sobie? O własnych siłach wzrastamy, aby w końcu stać się panami własnego życia i przeznaczenia, tak jak chce tego ten świat. Czy może Jezusowi? Jest on Królem Wszechświata, a Jego miłosierdzie i władza są wieczne i nieograniczone. Wybór wydaje się oczywisty, ale każdego dnia powinniśmy go potwierdzać. Królestwo Chrystusa nie pochodzi z tego świata i to my, swoimi wyborami i deklaracjami potwierdzamy Jego panowanie nad Wszechświatem.

Fr Ultan: As you all know by now Fr Ultan has been appointed by the Archbishop of Dublin to be a member of the Chaplaincy Team in the Technology University Dublin (TU Dublin). It is expected that he will be based at the Grangegorman site, in the North Inner City area, and will start at the beginning of December. TU Dublin is Ireland's first technology university with over 28,500 students. It has campuses in Dublin City, Tallaght and Blanchardstown and is built on its rich heritage of its founding organisations – Dublin Institute of Technology, IT Blanchardstown and IT Tallaght. Fr Ultan would like to thank everyone for their support over the last three years here in Sruleen and we wish him every blessing as he embarks on a new ministry in the university sector.

Congratulations to the parents, family and friends of

A quick reminder to all of us: from what can be gleaned from the media, social platforms, and experts in the various associated fields, the incidence of contraction of the Covid-19 virus, hospitalizations, absences from schools, and places of employment continues to increase. Therefore, it remains vital that we adhere to our current regulations of mask-wearing (appropriately), hand sanitization, and care taken with social-distancing. The afore-mentioned is not merely advice, rather, it is still a legal requirement. It is the law. In addition, for the safety and wellness of each of us, it behoves those among us who are unwell, or with colds, coughs etc, to remain at home. The dispensation to join in Eucharist via webcam has not been changed.
