Polish Reflection on this week's Gospel

Jesus Christ, we have received the power to become God's children. But let's answer honestly, do we really know God? Do we really understand what we inherited as children of the King of Kings? If so, why do we fear, why do we not trust Him, why do we not trust His plan for this world and for us individually? At the beginning of the New Year, let us ask the Holy Spirit to enlighten our minds so that we may know our Father better, and see the promises He has prepared for us.

W Jezusie Chrystusie otrzymaliśmy łaskę bycia dziećmi Bożymi. Ale odpowiedzmy sobie szczerze, czy naprawdę znamy Boga? Czy naprawdę rozumiemy, co odziedziczyliśmy jako dzieci Króla Królów? Jeśli tak, to dlaczego się lękamy, dlaczego nie ufamy Mu, dlaczego nie ufamy Jego planowi dla tego świata i dla nas samych? Na początku Nowego Roku prosimy Ducha Świętego, aby oświecił nasze umysły, abyśmy mogli lepiej poznać naszego Ojca, i zobaczyć te obietnice, które dla nas przygotował.

With the departure of Fr. Ultan in recent weeks from our parish community, and in the absence of a replacement full-time second priest, effective from 10th January, there will no Monday morning Mass celebrated at our parish. However, our parish church will remain open for private prayer.
(Future alterations may also apply depending on particular circumstance).

On behalf of all the members of our parish community, I would like to take this opportunity to express our deep appreciation to all who helped create a prayerful, peaceful and soothing ambiance throughout our Advent and Christmas Liturgies. Again, your efforts were amazing!!

With our ongoing Covid-19 pandemic and the various ways in which its consequences continue to increasingly affect so many in our society and throughout the world, we ask our God for the resilience and the patience, the courage and the faith to respond in those ways necessary to ensure our own health and wellness alongside that of others. Let us hope and pray that 2022 will be the bearer of better times for us all.

The January - May 2022 Schedule for the Roster for Ministers of the Word, and of the Eucharist are available for pick up at the back of the church. Thank you to you all for your ministry. We are very grateful.

Thursday, 6 January, The Feast Of The Epiphany Of The Lord. Mass will be celebrated at 10.00am

The Lighter Side !

A 4-year-old boy who was asked to return thanks before New Year's day dinner. The family members bowed their heads in expectation. He began his prayer, thanking God for all his friends, naming them one by one. Then he thanked God for Mommy, Daddy, brother, sister, Grandma, Grandpa, and all his aunts and uncles. Then he began to thank God for the food. He gave thanks for the turkey, the dressing, the fruit salad, the cranberry sauce, the pies, the cakes, even the Cream Whip.

Then he paused, and everyone waited--and waited. After a long silence, the young fellow looked up at his mother and asked, "If I thank God for the broccoli, won't he know that I'm lying?"
