Polish Reflection on this week's Gospel

Most of us do not remember our baptism and it is a special event. Since the baptism of the Lord, the heavens have not closed over our heads. In the same way, the Holy Spirit comes down on us as He came down on Jesus, and God the Father says we are His beloved children. Our life changes during the baptism. We begin our mission as followers of Christ and we are no longer powerless when confronted with this world. We are the sons and daughters of the King of Kings and heirs of His kingdom. Let us not waste this gift!

Większość z nas nie pamięta swoich chrzcin a jest to wydarzenie szczególne. Od czasu chrztu Pańskiego niebiosy nie zamknęły się nad naszymi głowami. W ten sam sposób Duch Święty zstępuje na nas, tak jak zstąpił na Jezusa, a Bóg Ojciec mówi, że jesteśmy Jego umiłowanymi dziećmi. Podczas chrztu nasze życie ulega zmianie. Rozpoczynamy naszą misję jako naśladowcy Chrystusa i nie jesteśmy już bezsilni w konfrontacji z tym światem. Jesteśmy synami i córkami Króla Królów i dziedzicami Jego królestwa. Nie zmarnujmy tego daru!

SVP CHRISTMAS APPEAL

We would like to say a huge 'thank you' to the wonderful people of Sruleen for your amazing generosity in our Christmas Appeal. The Church collection came to a staggering total of €4,590. Your donations will enable us to achieve so much in our Parish during the year ahead. Also, your generosity encourages us to continue the good work of our Society here in Sruleen.

May God bless you all. Joe Moon

*God BLESS
You*

In recent months there have been several references to the upcoming Dublin Diocesan Synod being planned for 2022. Consequently, in the meantime, our parish community here at Sruleen will begin holding a series of open meetings in the near future to formulate some themes, some areas of concern, and also some suggestions as to how the Dublin church community can respond more inclusively and appropriately within our membership and to those who feel unwelcome and excluded from the life of our church community at large, notwithstanding, of course, here at Sruleen. Our Parish Council members will be sure to keep you apprised of all plans and developments. Input from the parishes here in Dublin will contribute to the Diocesan Synod which it is hoped will provide guidance in the implementation of ways forward in our efforts to reinvigorate the life of our church community. As Pope Francis has said about discussions at local diocesan synods, and the World Synod of 2023, 'we don't need a new church, we need a different church.'

From Tuesday, 11 January, celebration of morning Masses will resume at the usual time of 9.15am.

The Lighter Side !

Two women talking in a Doctors Surgery. One says to the other. I have the perfect son. Thinking for a moment, the second woman says Does he smoke? No, he doesn't. Ok, does he drink whiskey? No, he doesn't came the reply. Trying again she says does he ever come home late? Again came the same reply, no, he doesn't. Well then I guess you really do have the perfect son. How old is he?

She proudly replies.....He will be six months old next Wednesday
