Polish Reflection on this week's Gospel

We have received the Holy Spirit to serve others with His gifts. Have you ever wondered what gifts you have been anointed with? Perhaps a gift of faith or of preaching the Word of God? Maybe you have the gift of prophesying or healing, in the name of Jesus? If you don't know it yet, today's gospel gives us guidance on what to do. "Do whatever he tells you," says Mary to the servants at the wedding at Cana. Obey God's voice. Pray for healing, preach the Gospel and prophesy and you will see what gift you have been anointed with. Fill the jars with water, with faith bring them out to the people and let God turn that water into wine.

Otrzymałiśmy Ducha Świętego aby służyć innym jego darami. Czy zastanawiałeś się kiedyś, jakimi darami Ty zostałeś namaszczone? Być może darem wiary lub głoszenia Słowa Bożego? Może masz dar prorokowania albo uzdrawiania w imię Jezusa? Jeśli jeszcze tego nie wiesz, dzisiejsza ewangelia daje nam wskazówkę co robić. „Uczyńcie wszystko, cokolwiek wam powie” – mówi Maryja do służących na weselu w Kanie. Bądź posłuszny głosowi Boga. Módl się o uzdrowienie, głos Ewangelie i prorokuj, a zobaczysz, jakim darem zostałeś namaszczone. Napełniaj naczynia wodą, z wiarą zanieś je do ludzi i pozwól Bogu zamieniać tę wodę w wino.

Dublin Diocesan Synod preparations update: The Second session for Animators who will lead our couple of parish 'listening sessions' takes place this current week. In conjunction with members of the PPC, a plan for these sessions will be developed at a meeting toward the end of this month. In the meantime,

I am asking all of us to make a concerted effort to attend our parish gatherings, and to invite another(s) to join with us. Such sessions are being planned for every parish throughout the diocese. Their aim is to affirm us in the living of our faith, and that we may try to confidently and boldly exercise our 'voice' as one among many in a society that continues to experience much socio-economic, and demographic change. By virtue of our common baptism, each of us individually, and collectively as community, are called to live and to (re)invite others to share the Gospel message. Let us be in no doubt that we have something to offer and something to say in a society where there is an unquantifiable amount of personal, emotional and spiritual upheaval and 'dis-ease'. I truly believe that the Holy Spirit is prompting us to plan for how we can more effectively and affectively in this common mission.

Week of Prayer for Christian Unity 2022

The Week of Prayer for Christian Unity is traditionally observed from the 18th to the 25th January – the octave of St. Peter and St. Paul. The Week of Prayer for Christian Unity in 2022 has been prepared by the churches of the Middle East, the history of which was, and still is, characterised by conflict and strife, tainted with blood and darkened by injustice and oppression. The Christians of the Middle East offer these resources conscious that the world shares many of the travails and much of the difficulties that it experiences, and yearns for a light to lead the way to the Saviour who is the light that overcomes darkness. Serving the Gospel today requires a commitment to the human being, especially the poorest, the weakest and those marginalised. It requires from the churches transparency and accountability in dealing with the world, and with each other. This means churches need to cooperate to provide relief to the afflicted, to welcome the displaced, to relieve the burdened, and to build a just and honest society. This is a call for churches to work together so that young people can build a good future according to God's heart, a future in which all human beings can experience life, peace, justice, and love.

The Lighter Side !

Our young son celebrated his birthday on crutches, so he couldn't carry the cupcakes into school without help. I asked his older brother , Noah, to help his brother carry them in. "I could," he said, "but I'd prefer not to." Spotting a teaching moment, my husband asked Noah, "What would Jesus do?" Noah answered, *"Jesus would heal him so he could carry his own cupcakes."
