Polish Reflection on this week's Gospel

Lord Jesus has personally called each of us to follow Him. It is now our responsibility to find time and build a relationship with Him. But is this the only dimension of Christianity? No. Together, the followers of Christ make up the Body of Christ. Each of us has an important role to play in building God's Kingdom here on earth. St. Paul reminds us that we should take care not only of our faith but also the whole Body of Christ. Take responsibility for each other and understand that our faith and relationship with God are important not only in the context of our own lives, but in a unique way also in relation to an entire community of believers.

Pan Jezus zaprosił każdego z nas osobiście by za Nim pójść. To do nas teraz należy budowanie z Nim relacji. Ale czy to jedyny wymiar chrześcijaństwa? Nie. Wszyscy którzy podążają za Chrystusem razem tworzą Jego Ciało. I każdy z nas ma do odegrania ważną rolę w budowaniu Królestwa Bożego tu na ziemi. Św. Paweł przypomina nam, że powinniśmy zadbać nie tylko o naszą wiarę ale o całe Ciało Chrystusa. Wziąć odpowiedzialność za siebie nawzajem, i zrozumieć, że nasza wiara i relacja z Bogiem są ważne nie tylko w kontekście naszego własnego życia, ale w unikalny sposób także dla całej wspólnoty wierzących.

Catholic Schools Week is celebrated this coming week, 23rd - 30th January. It's theme this year is Catholic Schools: Living Life to the Full. The ongoing Covid-19 pandemic provides us with ample opportunities to reflect on who and what give us meaning along life's journey. For us, as a community of faith "it is God's love and wish for us to know and love him that gives life ultimate meaning. Jesus Christ is the revelation of this love, realised through his life, death and resurrection. In response to this, we reflect upon how Catholic schools are communities where we live life to the full." (www.catholic schools.ie). With our hope, prayer, and with our encouragement pupils attending Catholic Schools are provided with the holistic skills to discover, and develop their God-given talents to help them live life to the full, to live healthy and productive lives, and to be of service to others in future years. Wednesday of Catholic Schools Week is Grandparents Day. Let us give thanks to God for the manifold blessings of kindness and care, compassion and love, and for the role-modelling they embody for their grandchildren.

Synod Reflection

"Where to from here?" This question is another way of putting the purpose of our Synodal Pathways: what does God want of his church? How can we be as a community of faith so as to serve the Good News and offer to all the word of life? As we imagine our future together, we stand in need of fresh inspiration and new energy. The regeneration of faith can have no other genesis than God's living word.

On the Sunday of the Word of God, we celebrate the gift of the Scriptures, a gift which goes on giving and can energise us with a new vision. May the words of Jesus be our experience too: 'This text is being fulfilled today even as you listen.' May the Spirit guide our reading and our listening, our living and our proclamation of the Good News.

The Lighter Side !

Fr. Pat buys a lawn mower at a yard sale. Back home, he pulls on the starter rope a few times with no results. He storms back to the yard sale and tells the previous owner, "I can't get the mower to start!" "That's because you have to curse to get it started," says the man. "I'm a man of the cloth. I don't even remember how to curse." "You keep pulling on that rope, and it'll come back to you."
