Polish Reflection on this week's Gospel

God is Love. And although we sometimes forget it, the Lord reminds us of it every day in different situations in our lives. It is important to understand that we should be merciful to ourselves as well. We should strive for perfection, as St. Paul says in his letter, but to a perfection not based on one's own strength, but a perfection that comes from faith in Christ. Only then we can allow him to change our hearts. God does not want us to condemn ourselves. The Lord wants to build a relationship with you and help you live your life to the full. Will you let Him into your heart?

Bóg jest miłością. I choć czasami o tym zapominamy, to Pan przypomina nam o tym każdego dnia w różnych sytuacjach naszego życia. Ważnym jest, aby zrozumieć, że powinniśmy być miłośni także dla siebie. Powinniśmy dążyć do doskonałości, jak mówi św. Paweł w swoim liście, ale do doskonałości nie opartej na własnych siłach, ale doskonałości, która pochodzi z wiary w Chrystusa. Tylko wtedy możemy pozwolić mu by przemienił nasze serca. Bóg nie chce, żebyśmy siebie sami potępiali. Pan chce zbudować z tobą relację i pomóc ci żyć pełnią życia. Czy wpuścisz Go do swojego serca?

The Lighter Side !

A cowboy appeared before St. Peter at the pearly gates. "Have you ever done anything of particular merit?" St. Peter asked. "Well, I can think of one thing," the cowboy offered. "Once, on a trip to the Black Hills of South Dakota, I came upon a gang of bikers, who were threatening a young woman. I directed them to leave her alone, but they wouldn't listen. So, I approached the largest and most heavily tattooed biker and smacked him in his face, kicked his bike over, ripped out his nose ring, and threw it on the ground. I then yelled, 'Now, back off, or I'll kick the living daylights out of all of you!'" St. Peter was impressed. He leafed through the great book he held. "When did this happen?" "Just a couple minutes ago. . . .!"
