A Polish Reflection on this week's Gospel

How can one God be present in three persons? Are we able to grasp the mystery of the Holy Trinity with our simple human mind? God gives us his Holy Spirit to lead us to the fullness of the truth. That he would reveal to us the secrets of the Kingdom and faith. Let us not be afraid to ask Him! His answers won't always be expressed through human words because sometimes it is impossible. Sometimes He will speak to us in the language of our hearts - through love! And let Him do it! This will allow us to understand at least some part of the mysteries of our faith.

W jaki sposób jeden Bóg może być obecny w trzech osobach? Czy jesteśmy w stanie pojąć tajemnicę Trójcy Przenajświętszej naszym prostym ludzkim umysłem? Bóg daje nam swojego Ducha Świętego, aby prowadził nas do pełni prawdy. By odkrywał przed nami tajemnice Królestwa i wiary. Nie lękajmy się Go pytać! Nie zawsze Jego odpowiedzi będą wyrażone ludzkimi słowami bo czasami jest to niemożliwe. Czasami będzie mówił do nas językiem naszych serc - miłością! I pozwólmy Mu na to! To pozwoli nam choć trochę pojąć tajemnice naszej wiary.

Parish Pastoral Meeting (PPC), the final one before summer recess

Tuesday, 14 June in the Parish Centre at 7.30pm. The meeting will begin the review of responses to the feedback from both the Parish Listening Session, and from the Building Hope series of questions posed at recent Masses over two previous weekends. On behalf of all the faith community here at Sruleen, I would like to sincerely thank the members of the PPC for their gifts of time, talent, and generosity over the past year. In recent years with the advent of the Covid-19 pandemic and since the beginning of our gradual emergence from its restrictions and our 'baby steps' to 'normal' routines and activities, I am conscious of the additional energy and commitment involved.

We are truly blessed by our PPC. Thank you Hugh, Dolores, Eucharía, and Chris for your ministry among us.

Our chairperson of the Parish Pastoral council (PPC), Hugh O'Neill will speak at Masses of the weekend of 18/19 June to provide some preliminary feedback from our Listening Session and from the series of questions posed at recent Masses. Both opportunities will have helped provide a template to address how our faith community here at Sruleen may 'walk with people' in a welcoming, inclusive, and caring manner within a very changed local spiritual and demographic landscape in the years ahead. Thank you for the feedback. It truly matters for all of us!

June	12 Noon	(W)	Catherine Fitzgerald	(E)	Maise McDonald

At the weekend Masses of Saturday and Sunday of 18 and 19 June respectively, the Summer Dues Collection inaugurated by the Archdiocese last, year 2021 to help compensate for the financial crisis, due to the Covid-19 pandemic, to cover priests' salaries will take place.

Again, sincerest gratitude for your kindness!

Let us keep in our thoughts and prayers all students throughout the country who are currently sitting for the Junior Certificate and Leaving Certificate Examinations that God is blessing them with the calm and abilities to help chart their way into their preferred or suitable options of study, work, and occupations. We also ask for God's comfort and blessings on those students who have recently sat Third Level examinations.
