A Polish Reflection on this week's Gospel

I have no doubts that sometimes when we look at the world around us, a desire arises in us that the second coming of the Lord Jesus should come sooner rather than later. But are we really ready for it? Impatient with this waiting and preoccupied with the things of this world, can we still actively believe in His return at all?

Let us ask God for the grace of faith, which, as St. Paul says "can prove the existence of the realities that at present remains unseen". The Lord Jesus will return and our faith can make this reality visible to all.

Nie mam wątpliwości, że czasami kiedy patrzymy na otaczający nas świat, rodzi się w nas pragnienie, aby drugie przyjście Pana Jezusa nastąpiło jak najszybciej. Ale czy tak naprawdę jesteśmy na to gotowi? Zniecierpliwieni tym czekaniem i zajęci sprawami tego świata, czy my jeszcze potrafimy w ogóle aktywnie wierzyć w Jego powrót?

Prośmy Boga o łaskę wiary. Wiary, która jak mówi św. Paweł "jest dowodem istnienia rzeczywistości niewidzialnej". Pan Jezus powróci a nasza wiara może sprawić, że ta rzeczywistość stanie się widoczna dla wszystkich.

Please turn off all mobile phones or place them on silent before Mass begins.

The Lighter Side !

God looks over the millions of people and says 'Welcome to Heaven. I want the women to go with Saint Peter, and the men to form two lines. Make one line of the men that dominated their women on earth, and the other of men who were dominated by their women. 'There's much movement, but eventually the women are gone and there are two lines. The line of the men that were dominated is 100 miles long. The line of men that dominated women has only one man. God gets angry and says, 'You men should be ashamed of yourselves. I created you in my image and you were all dominated by your mates. Look at the only one of my sons that stood up and made me proud. Learn from him!' He turns to the man and says, 'Tell them, my son. How did you manage to be the only one on that line?' The man says, 'I don't know God, my wife just told me to stand here.'
