A big thank you to our 'Sacred Hearts Secular Branch' for organising the day of Adoration last Friday for the Feast of the Sacred Heart. Another welcome return to a pre-Covid tradition here in the parish.

We have been offered a mobility scooter. If you, or somebody you know, needs same, please phone the presbytery (on 01 4570032,) to discuss the matter confidentially.

World Youth Day: White envelopes available at the back of the church for those among us in a position to offer a donation towards World Youth Day in Lisbon, Portugal at which one of our young parishioners, Divine will be attending from 31st July to 8th August.

The newly-constituted Parish Partnership Pastoral council will meet for the first time on the evening of Monday, 19 June in Srúleen Parish Centre at 7.30pm. Please remember the new Council in your thoughts and prayers as it begins its efforts to renew and strengthen our life as a faith community among the four member-Parishes of 'Clondalkin village,' Deansrath, Bawnogue, and Srúleen.

Dublin Diocesan Pilgrimage To Lourdes: The Archdiocese of Dublin resumes its annual Pilgrimage to Lourdes, from 7 - 12 September under the spiritual leadership of the Archbishop of Dublin, Most Rev. Dr. Dermot Farrell. Donations are always most appreciated to help defray the costs of enabling ill pilgrims to travel with accompanying medical supervision, Again this is such a worthy cause!

Father, bless all dads today in a special way. We pray for your blessing, favour, and strength over every Dad in this world, we ask that you keep their footsteps firm, and guard their way, help them to always stand strong, to be men of faith, hope and love. Amen

The Lighter Side !

'I hope you didn't take it personally Father,' says an embarrassed parishioner to her Priest on leaving Mass, 'when my husband walked out during your sermon.' "I did find it a little disconcerting ,"replied the priest. 'It wasn't out of any disrespect to you Father,' insisted the wife, 'Paddy has been walking in his sleep, ever since he was a child!'
