Please hold up in prayer and in good thoughts the leaders of the local Parish Partnership who are meeting this coming Thursday, 31st August to further the efforts towards more collaborative ministry among us in the four member-Parishes of Clondalkin village, Bawnogue, Deansrath and Srulleen. Among its first goals is the rescheduling of Masses.

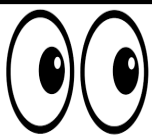

This coming week witnesses the beginning of the new Academic year. We pray for parents and students, teachers and staff: that it may be a safe, successful, formative and informative year. Let us not forget our school leavers who are anxiously awaiting the results of the Leaving Certificate. I think its appropriate to note that the future of so many of our young people depends on a 'point system' that is long-overdue some form of modification. Again, we pray for our young people embarking on college life or for those who will take their place in the workforce.

New Rosters for Ministers of the Word, and of the Eucharist are available for pick up at the back of the church.
Thank you to you all for your ministry. We are very grateful.

Friday 1st is the first Friday where all on our sick and house bound list will be visited. If you know of any parishioner in hospital, at home or in a nursing home that may like a visit from a priest, please let Fr Michael or myself know.

The Urban Picnic is returning to Corkagh Park on Sunday the 27 August, and will operate from 11am to 5pm each Sunday up to 15 October. Urban Picnic will be located near the playground in the park, visible from the car park at St. John's Entrance.

This year's market will launch with an Intercultural Food and Craft event on Sunday 27 August. This event will have a wide variety of global food, craft, entertainment, and family activities.

The Lighter Side !

The parish's choir director had a reputation for a hot temper. By mistake the local newspaper printed her obituary. She stormed into the newspaper office and demanded: "The report of my death in your paper is a lie. I'll sue you for everything you've got if you don't apologise in the next issue." The next edition contained the following notice on its front page: "We regret very much that the notice of Mary Smith's death, which appeared in our last issue, was not true."
