A prayer for the month of Holy Souls

In these days when we look back upon generations of the mercy of God, brilliantly lit in those who came before us, I like to think, too, of the mercy that will stretch beyond us. We have laid so many to rest this year that our grief is ever present with us. But so, likewise, are our loved ones — The paths they walked, the prayers they prayed may we realise, too, that someday we also will live on earth only in memory.

Carried in the hearts of those who loved us. In remembering our death, may we move through each day with tenderness, with gentleness, with love strong enough to stretch that thin veil between heaven and earth into transparency.

May we light the candles that will brighten the lives of those who will come after us. And may we always recognise this truth:

That the goodness of God is matched only by its might, ever transcending both life ad death. Amen [Cameron Bellm]

The Lighter Side !

A school teacher asked her children one day in class , "And why is it necessary to be quiet in church?" One little girl put up his hand and replied "Is it because all the people there are sleeping Miss ?"
