Friday 2nd Februay is our first Friday where all our sick and housebound are visited. Let us continue to hold up in our thoughts and prayers the homebound/sick, those residing in nursing/residential care facilities, and those currently in our hospitals.

FRIDAY, 2 FEBRUARY, FEAST OF THE PRESENTATION OF THE LORD IN THE TEMPLE.

Friday, 2 February, World Day for Consecrated Life: We give God thanks for the service of male and female consecrated religious, ordained and non-ordained throughout the entirety of our global church family, both past and present, oftentimes in unknown and adverse circumstances. Let us remember them in our private and communal prayer.

Monday, 7 February, 7.30pm, Parish Centre, Meeting of the Parish Pastoral council (PPC). We thank the members of the PPC for their time, generosity, and openness to the beginning stages of the ministry of the newly-established Parish Partnership Pastoral Council in its efforts to discern new ways of being and living church life. Here, it's very important to add that such efforts are never about undermining past or current practices of rituals, liturgies, and church life. Rather, it seeks to emphasise the call to ministry of each member, by virtue of baptism, notwithstanding the changing sociocultural and spiritual/religious landscape of our society.

DIARY DATES

FEBRUARY 15TH : CONFIRMATION CEREMONIES 11AM & 1PM

The Lighter Side !

A grandmother and a little girl whose face was sprinkled with bright red freckles spent the day at the zoo. The children were waiting in line to get their cheeks painted by a local artist who was decorating them with tiger paws. 'You've got so many freckles, there's no place to paint!' a boy in the line cried. Embarrassed, the little girl dropped her head. Her grandmother knelt down next to her. 'I love your freckles,' she said. 'Not me,' the girl replied. 'Well, when I was a little girl I always wanted freckles,' she said, tracing her finger across the child's cheek. 'Freckles are beautiful!' The girl looked up 'Really?' 'Of course,' said the grandmother. 'Why, just name me one thing that's prettier than freckles.'

The little girl peered into the old woman's smiling face.
'Wrinkles,' she answered softly.
