As a parish family, we extend our condolences, thoughts and prayers to Gerard Murphy on the passing of his sister, Miriam. May she rest in peace. Also, we lift up in prayer the family of Gerry McDonagh who more recently passed away. May he rest in peace.

The second collection at Masses this weekend, 17/18 February, is for ACCORD Dublin, the church agency which provides pastoral supports for families, young people at school with the Relationship, Sexuality Education (RSE) programme, marriage preparation classes, and individuals/couples seeking advice and counselling.

Friday, 23rd February, the prayer of the Stations Of The Cross immediately after morning Mass. The stations will be led by some members of the Lector Ministry.

The students of the two Second Classes preparing for first Holy Communion will celebrate the sacrament of Reconciliation (Confession) for the first time on Thursday, 22 February and Friday, 23 February at the School. We congratulate the children on taking this next, important step in their relationship with God. We thank the teachers and class assistants for their ongoing, great work with the boys and girls.

Pope Francis reflects....

"Eat whatever you want for Easter, the sacrifice is not in the stomach, but in the heart. They refrain from eating meat, but don't talk to their siblings or relatives, don't visit their parents or bother them to attend to them. Don't share food with the needy, forbid children to see their father, forbid grandparents to see their grandchildren, criticize other people's lives, beat their wife, etc.. A good barbecue or beef stew won't make you a bad person, just like a fish fillet won't turn you into a saint. Better seek to have a deeper relationship with God through better treatment of others. Let's be less arrogant and more humble at heart".

The Lighter Side!

A bartender notices that every evening, without fail, one of his patrons orders three beers. After several weeks of noticing this pattern, the bartender asks the man why he always orders three beers. The man says, "I have two brothers who have moved away order an extra two beers whenever we drank as a way of keeping up the family bond." Several weeks later, noticing that the man only ordered two beers, the bartender said, "Please accept my condolences on the death of one of your brothers. You know, the two beers and all..." The man replied, "You'll be happy to hear that my two brothers are alive and well..... It's just that I, myself, have decided to give up drinking for Lent."
