ENTRANCE ANTIPHONS

- TUESDAY: I will look after my sheep, says the Lord, and I will appoint a shepherd to pasture them, and I the Lord, will be their God.
- WEDNESDAY: Come, you blessed of my father, says the Lord; I was sick and you visited me. Truly I say to you: whatever you did for one of the least of my brethren you did it for me
- THURSDAY: Let us sing the praises of our ancestors in their successive generations, for the Lord has created an abundance of glory, and displayed His greatness from earliest times.
- FRI & SAT: Forsake me not, O Lord, my God; be not far from me! Make haste and come to my help, O Lord, my strong salvation!

WHY SUNDAY MATTERS

"As we journey together through this Jubilee Year of Hope, we, the Irish Bishops, warmly invite all Catholics to reflect on the profound gift of Sunday Mass. This special year offers a unique opportunity to rediscover the heart of our faith and, for those who have been away, to return with renewed joy to the celebration of the Eucharist." There are a few hard copies of their document:

"Why Sunday Matters - An Invitation to Reflect on Sunday Mass" available from the sacristy. This and other resources can be found on their website: catholicbishops.ie.

Why Sunday Matters

An invitation to reflect on Sunday Mass

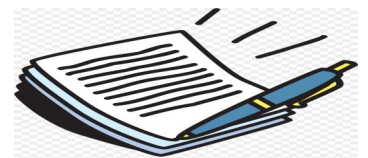

Mass cards and the booking of Masses are available from the sacristy after each Mass. If you require a certain date, please book well in advance to guarantee your preference.

Worldwide Marriage Encounter are hosting a 'Marriage Enrichment Weekend' on 7th-9th November at the Focolare Centre, Prosperous, Co Kildare. Please see the noticeboard for more details and how to book and register for the weekend.

SRULEEN RESIDENTS ASSOCIATION are hosting a 'Coffee & Chat' morning this Thursday 6th November, in the Parish Centre from 9.30am - 11am and all are welcome to pop in. They are requesting that if you are working on a piece of knitting or crochet, to bring it along.

If you didn't receive the November Letter because you live outside the confines of the parish, and would like to have the names of your departed family and friends included in our November Altar List, please pick up an envelope after Mass.

BALALLY - JOHN MAIN SEMINAR

This November, The World Community for Christian Meditation (WCCM) hosts the John Main Seminar 2025 at Balally Parish in Dublin, with the theme Integral Christianity: The Vision of Celtic Christianity for the Crisis of the 21st Century. The event will also be available live online, with access to recordings. This year's Seminar will be enriched by contributions from the key-speakers but also from the participants. We want it to be like an immersion in a stream of hope and the remembrance of a living legacy - recovering an inspirational form of Christian faith but for our very present needs today. This will come together as we conclude with a 'synodal' experience, sharing in small groups and as a whole what the Spirit has taught us and seeing more clearly where it is leading us. For full details, visit <https://wccm.org/jms2025/>.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE!

Mr Murphy peered over his fence and noticed that the neighbour's little boy was in his backyard filling in a hole. Curious about what the youngster was up to, Mr Murphy asked, 'What are you doing, Jimmy?' Tearfully, little Jimmy replied, "My goldfish died, and I've just buried him." "That's an awfully large hole for a goldfish, isn't it?" Mr Murphy said. Patting down the last bit of earth, little Jimmy replied, "That's because he's in your cat!"
