Please keep Ollie and the whole Fogarty Family [Hazelwood Crescent] in your prayers at this time on the death of Pearl, whose funeral took place here on Friday last. Also, please keep Fr Ultan ss.cc. and his Family in your prayers on the death of his Father Michael. His funeral, also took place on Friday last in Roscommon Town. Fágann saol maith ina dhiaidh oidhreacht álainn.

This Sunday on St Brigid's Day, at 3pm, please join other parishioners to pray the Rosary at our own St Brigid's Well. With St Brigid being especially known as a woman of peace, let us be inspired by Brigid as we pray for the intercession of our Blessed Mother: "You were a woman of peace. You brought harmony where there was conflict. You brought light to the darkness. You brought hope to the downcast. May the mantle of your peace cover those who are troubled and anxious, and may peace be firmly rooted in our world."

The Poor Clares Galway, are hosting a Half-Day Retreat for women 18-35 with Beth Davis of 'Blessed is She Ministries' an opportunity to encounter God's love and deepen your life of prayer and communion with God. The event will take place from 2pm to 6pm on Sunday the 1st of February. For more information, please see a poster on the noticeboard: <https://cherisheddaughters.eventbrite.ie>

A new online communications initiative of the Irish Bishop's Conference is now available via www.theWay.ie Among its content are podcasts, interviews, field-reports, news, videos and faith resources etc. For more information, please see the poster on the noticeboard.

Please note, the 'Crying Room' at the back of the church, is reserved only for parents/guardians who are accompanying children to Mass. As it has safeguarding implications, please do not use the room if you do not have children with you. Thank You.

This coming Friday is the First Friday of the Month, when our sick and housebound are visited. Please let us know if you are aware of anyone who may not be on our list. Better to be informed twice than not at all. Thank you.

On the Lighter Side!

A man observed a woman in a supermarket with a three-year-old girl in her basket. As they passed the biscuit section, the child asked for biscuits and her Mother told her "no." The little girl immediately began to whine and fuss, and the Mother said quietly, "Now Ellen, we just have half of the aisles left to go through; don't be upset. It won't be long." He passed the Mother again in the sweets aisle. Of course, the little girl began to shout for sweets. When she was told she couldn't have any, she began to cry. The Mother said, "There, there, Ellen, don't cry. Only two more aisles to go, and then we'll be checking out." The man again happened to be behind the pair at the check-out, where the little girl immediately began to clamour for gum and burst into a terrible tantrum upon discovering there would be no gum purchased today. The Mother patiently said, "Ellen, we'll be through this check-out in five minutes, and then you can go home and have a nice nap." The man followed them out to the car park and stopped the woman to compliment her. "I couldn't help noticing how patient you were with little Ellen..." The Mother broke in, "My little girl's name is Tammy... I'm Ellen!"
