Let us hold up in prayer ANDREW WYNNE who died recently. His funeral Mass was celebrated here at Sruleen Church on Friday last, 10th July. May he rest in eternal peace in the loving embrace of God. We continue to pray for Andrew's wife, Mary and for their daughter, Andrea, and sons, Mark and Aaron at this very difficult time and in the days ahead. Fágann saol maith ina dhiaidh oidhreacht álainn.

The Diocese has launched its 'SUMMER DUES' appeal. Please see a letter and poster from Archbishop Farrell explaining the initiative and the rationale behind it. The letter also explains how those who donate €250.00 or more per year across the three dues collections, including Standing Orders or Weekly envelopes, would be eligible to have the Parish claim a tax refund from Revenue up to the value of 45% of your identifiable contributions. To help the Parish do this, please provide your name and contact details on the donation envelope, which can be picked up from the table at the back of the Church.

BLESSING OF THE GRAVES

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE!

A man walks into a monastery and says "I want to be a monk." The Abbot replies, "Great! But you realise we are not allowed to talk except every ten years." The man replies "Fine." Ten years go by and the man goes into the Abbot's office. The Abbot asks, "Well my son what have you to say?" The man replies, "Bed's hard." The Abbot remarks, "Is that it?" The man says, "Yes." Another ten years go by and the man goes into the Abbot's office and says, "Food stinks!" The Abbot asks, "Is that it?" And the man says, "Yes." Another ten years goes by and the man goes into the Abbot's office and says, "Water's cold, I quit!" And the Abbot replies, "Figures! You've been complaining ever since you got here!"
