SOME STATEMENTS FROM POPE LEO XIV'S SPEECH, 'STATE OF THE WORLD,' 9 JANUARY, 2026

"Rediscovering the meaning of words is perhaps one of the primary challenges of our time."

"Language is no longer the preferred means by which human beings come to know and encounter one another."

"Conscientious objection is not rebellion, but an act of fidelity to oneself."

"It cannot be overlooked, for example, that every migrant is a person and, as such, has inalienable rights that must be respected in every situation."

"The same considerations apply to prisoners, who can never be reduced to the crimes they have committed."

"The Holy See reiterates its condemnation of any form of involvement of civilians in military operations."

"A society is healthy and truly progresses only when it safeguards the sanctity of human life and works actively to promote it."

"Yet, as St Augustine notes, 'great is the folly of pride in those individuals who think that the supreme good can be found in this life, and that they can become happy by their own resources.'"

"During our pilgrimage on this earth, peace-making requires humility and courage: the humility to live truthfully and the courage to forgive."

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE!

The children were lined up in the cafeteria of a Catholic Primary School for lunch. At the head of the table was a large pile of apples. The nun made a note, and placed it in front of the tray of apples: "Take only ONE. God is watching." Moving further along the lunch line, at the other end of the table was a large pile of chocolate chip cookies. A child had written a note, "Take all you want. God is watching the apples!"
