Congratulations, prayers and good wishes to RIAN STEPHEN SMULLEN, [St John's Crescent] and his parents, Godparents and family, on being welcomed into the Church and this faith community, through the beautiful Sacrament of Baptism recently. Go gcoinní Dia i mbos A láimhe thú.

ARCHBISHOP DERMOT FARRELL'S HOMILY AT THE GROTTO IN LOURDES, during the recent Dublin Diocesan Pilgrimage to Lourdes, can be accessed via the link below. In his homily, the Archbishop described the shrine as a place of hope, faith, truth and God's transforming presence. He emphasised Our Lady's vision of God raising up the lowly and called for Christians to work actively for justice. He highlighted Ireland's housing crisis as a major injustice, urging society, the Church and individuals to examine their own responsibilities and priorities.

The IRISH CATHOLIC weekly paper has been publishing a quality newspaper for over a hundred years. It is full of interesting articles, reflections, news, commentaries, letters, book and film reviews etc; that keeps us up-to-date on Church and faith matters at home and around the world. Approximately a dozen parishioners receive their weekly copy through the parish at a cost of €3.50 (which will be increasing to €3.80 from the 1st October 2026). If you would like to receive a weekly copy, please leave your name into the Sacristy to be added to the list.

ute on these dates can support the appeal online at www.crosscare.ie. Crosscare, the social support agency of the Archdiocese of Dublin, provides practical support to people at some of the most difficult moments in their lives.

Every day Crosscare works alongside families worried about losing their home, young people in need of guidance and support, people experiencing homelessness, and migrants and refugees seeking safety and a fresh start. The theme of this year's appeal is Hope & Resilience. It reflects the remarkable courage shown by the people Crosscare serves every day, and the hope made possible through the generosity of parish communities.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE!

A man goes into a seafood restaurant and sees a sign that reads: "Big Red Lobster Tails - €1." Amazed at the value of the offer, he calls a waitress over. "Excuse me," he said. "Is that sign correct?" "Yes sir," she replied. "It's today's special offer." "Fantastic," said the man. "But are you sure they're not small?" "Oh no sir, I can assure you that they are very big." "Are they out of date then?" "No, no sir, they are fresh in this morning." "Well in that case, here's my €1. Fill me up." The waitress took the €1 coin, sat down beside him and said: "Once upon a time, there was a big red lobster..."
